Authorities Uncover 60 Gallons Of Corn Mash And 10 Gallons Of Distilled "White Mule"

BOY PROVIDES THE CLUE

Raiford Garris, Found Unconscious
In Connersville, Implicates Uncle
Edward Herbert

A raid was conducted this morning by Sheriff S. L. Hunt, Deputy Sheriff Spradling, and officers from Fayette county, on a farm occupied by Edward Herbert, five miles north-east of Rushville, and south of Gings, which resulted in the finding of 60 gallons of corn mash and ten gallons of distilled "white mule," according to the report that reached this city.

The occupant of the farm was said to be missing from home when the search was made. Samples of the corn mash and liquor were brought to jail here at noon today, and this afternoon Sheriff Hunt and Deputy Spradling were in Connersville gathering evidence in connection with the raid.

According to the report, the alleged still with which the liquor was being made, could not be located, and an additional search of the premises was expected. Frank Perkins, Connersville resident, was arrested in that city early today, and Raiford Garris, 15-year-old boy, is also held for a witness and questioning by officers in that city.

The raid this morning was conducted on information supplied from Connersville authorities, who took Raiford Garris, a 15-year-old-boy, into custody about midnight when he was said to be unconscious from the effects of liquor, and was asleep in an automobile on Central Avenue.

The Connersville police carried him to the jail, and took charge of the touring car, and shortly after midnight Frank Perkins, a resident of Connersville, started to leave with the machine and he was also arrested and placed in jail.

This morning the 15-year-old youth gave out the startling facts in the case, and cited the officers to the liquor on the farm of his uncle Edward Herbert, near Gings. The lad is an orphan, and has been in a state institution until a few weeks ago, having been sent to the house of correction from Henry County. When he was released on good behavior, he was given to the custody of his uncle near Gings, it is stated.

Perkins is said to be the same one who was found guilty a few years ago in Connersville of robbing the express office and has served a term for that crime.

He is in jail in Connersville, unable to provide $2,500 bond on a charge of unlawfully transporting liquor, as the machine is said to have contained a pint of liquor and 3 gallons of mash. Another charge of carrying a deadly weapon also has been filed against him, as a double barreled shot gun, loaded, was found in the car, together with 5 extra shells, according to the officers.

The cases against him have been set for trial next Thursday in the Fayette circuit court.

This morning when the youth confessed to the authorities and told them about the liquor on the farm near Gings, he told them also that Perkins had driven up there last

SECOND ATTEMPT FAILURE

Airplane up to Break Endurance Records Falls Into Bay

San Diego, Calif., June 29.—The second attempt of Captain Smith and Lieutenant Richter to remain aloft four days in an airplane ended at 4:30 a. m. today when their machine fell into San Diego Bay.

Neither flyer was seriously injured. Fog was believed responsible for the accident. The aviators took off early Thursday morning and flew around and around over San Diego, taking on fuel from another plane while still rushing through the air at terrific speed.

Their first attempt failed when mechanical trouble forced them down after only a few hours.

DEFENSE WITNESSES CALLED

W. H. Latta Says There Was Nothing Irregular in Hunt's Dealings

Indianapolis, Ind., June 29.—Defense witnesses were called today in the trial of Edwin A. Hunt, charged with conspiracy to embezzle funds from the treasury of Marion county. Hunt, who is president of the Pivot City Realty company, will probably take the stand this afternoon in his own defense.

Will H. Latta, called as the first witness of the defense, testified that there was nothing irregular in the business dealings between Hunt and Richard Sipe, former county clerk who testified for the state that Hunt borrowed about $40,000 of county funds from him and then left him to face the music.

Sipe is now serving a sentence for misappropriation of county funds.

DEFINITE PLANS MADE FOR CAMP

Details For Boys Outing Agreed Upon, With Exception Of Site, Which Will Be Selected Soon

OPENS JULY 17, RUNS 2 WEEKS

Boys From All Parts Of Rush County Will Be Eligible—Fee Will Be $4 For Each Seven Days

Definite plans to cover all details of the Rush county boys camp to be held next month with the exception of the location, were agreed upon by committees in charge of the project Thursday evening.

The camp will be open to all Rush county boys as it was last year.

It will open on Tuesday, July 17, and will continue for two full weeks.

The fee for each boy registering to attend the camp will be four dollars for seven days.

The camp will be limited to fifty boys per week.

Boys registering for the first week will be permitted to stay the second week provided the camp is not filled for the second week.

The camp will be in charge of Albert F. Cotton, director of physical education in the Rushville public schools, and D. R. Merrell, local scoutmaster of the Boy Scouts.

The committee to select a site planned another trip today which it was expected would result in a site being selected. The committee has viewed several locations and agreed on one, providing the owner will consent to permit the camp on his farm. The committee planned to

WON'T SEEM LIKE 4TH IN RUSHVILLE

No Fireworks Will Be Permitted and No Celebration Is Planned—Will Be General Holiday

MOST STORES TO BE CLOSED

July Fourth might just as well be the Fourth of December or August or any other month, as far as the bombastic ambitions of the local small boy is concerned. "No fireworks in Rushville!" says the law, and the law is being obeyed. A few very small and retiring pieces of fireworks are for sale in the local stores, but the loudly patriotic displays of giant crackers and huge red cannon crackers popularly rumored to contain dynamite, aren't in sight this year. What noise disturbs Rushville on July Fourth will probably be automobile tires blowing out as a steady stream of Indianapolis people flow through here enroute to pleasure resorts along the creeks.

Independence Day will be quietly observed in Rushville, by grown-ups as well as boys. No special observance will be given the day by any Rushville patriotic organization.

Most downtown stores will be closed all day. The banks will also close all day and the postoffice will observe the usual holiday rules, with no deliveries on the rural routes.

UNITED STATES WILL STAND PAT

Will Not Change Front on Ship-Liquor Policy Despite Lord Curzon's Speech

U. S. PRACTICE IS CONDEMNED

This Government to Stand Firmly on Its Rights to Seize Liquor in 3-Mile Zone

(By United Press)

Washington, June 29.—The United States stands pat on its ship-liquor policy.

This was the answer in official circles today to the speech of Lord Curzon, secretary for foreign affairs in the House of Lords, in which he condemned American practices in enforcing prohibition within the three mile limit and rejected the Hughes proposal that the zone of territorial waters be extended to twelve miles.

The following, it is understood on good authority, will be the policy of this country as a result of Curzon's declarations:

1—Since Britain will not accept the proposal of Secretary Hughes, the United States will stand firmly on its right to seize liquor from British ships inside the three mile limit.

2—The United States will not revert for the present from the stand taken yesterday in refusing demands of dry leaders to seize foreign vessels that bring liquor here in violation of the court ruling.

3—However, after sufficient time has elapsed for the foreign steamship lines to accomplish their "test" of the American law, this government will take some drastic action, such as seizure of the ships if the foreign lines persist in violating the law.

4—The American government takes the position that the supreme court ruling constitutes a final word on American law and that law must be upheld against all objections, unless satisfactory treaty arrangements can be made to overcome these objections and modify the law.

Discussion In The Open

London, June 29.—The British-American dispute over enforcement of prohibition on the seas has been thrown into the field of open diplomacy after extensive secret negotiations.

Lord Curzon, secretary of state for foreign affairs, announced in the House of Lords that "friendly discussion" with the United States over

SUE WEBSTER FOR $20,000 DAMAGES

Margaret And Blaine Fritch File Complaints Against Head Of Indianapolis Detective Agency

"PLANTED" BOOZE THEY SAY

(Special to the Daily Republican.)

Indianapolis, Ind., June 29.—Two suits demanding $10,000 each have been filed in the circuit court before Judge Harry Chamberlain, by Attorney Albert C. Stevens of Rushville, on behalf of Margaret Fritch and Blaine Fritch, 708 North Alabama street, against Harry C. Webster of the H. C. Webster detective agency of this city.

The suits allege that a conspiracy was entered into between Fred Clevenger of Rushville and the detective agency, in which the agency was paid for "planting" booze in the Fritch home, to secure the arrest of Fritch and prevent him from offering testimony in a liquor case against Clevenger at Rushville.

The two plaintiffs allege that they were damaged to the extent of $10,000 each. The plaintiffs are mother and son. In a statement given out, Mr. Webster denies that he received any instructions to place the liquor in the Fritch home, and if any liquor was placed there, that one of his operatives might have done it on his own initiative, and without the sanction of the agency.

Similar suits by the plaintiffs have been instituted at Rushville against Fred Clevenger, it is understood.

PLEADS NOT GUILTY

Cleveland, Ohio, June 29.—John L. Whitfield, alleged to have shot Patrolman Dennis Griffin here, May 11, pleaded not guilty when arraigned today. Whitfield, who had been the object of a man hunt over several states of the middle west until his capture at Detroit Tuesday, insisted that the shot was fired accidentally in a tussle after Griffin had arrested him.

MINERS WANT INCREASE

Seranton, Pa., June 29.—The wage demands of the anthracite miners, which they wish to become effective September 1 at the expiration of the present agreement, were made public at the tri-district convention here today. The demands call for a two year wage agreement, that contract scales be increased 20 per cent, day men to get an increase of one dollar a day and that the eight hour day be made general in the anthracite industry.

CO-DEFENDANTS SEEK RELEASE

Demurrer To Complaint Of Gertrude Williams Vs E. M. Payne Et Al Argued In Court

DIVORCE SUIT IS HEARD

Evidence In The Case Of Elsie Lewis Against Horace F. Lewis Is Not Concluded

The first legal battle in connection with the affair involving Earl H. Payne, former bank president, was being threshed out this afternoon in the circuit court before Judge Will M. Sparks, when a demurrer to the complaint of Gertrude Williams of Glenwood against the defendant and co-defendants, was being heard.

The complaint filed by the plaintiff demands $8,500 judgment and $10,000 costs, and $5,000 judgment and $5,000 costs against Horace F. Lewis, the defendant, and Ralph Payne parties to the defense. The demurrer that was being heard this afternoon was an attempt to set aside that portion of the complaint having reference to the co-defendants.

Legal citations were being used in the arguments and many references to similar cases were being cited by each side to show their cause.

This morning Judge Sparks heard a divorce suit in the circuit court in which Elsie Lewis was plaintiff and Horace F. Lewis, the defendant, and no decision was rendered in the matter after the evidence was concluded.

The plaintiff, who is 26 years old, alleged that the defendant, who is 65 years old, mistreated her, called her abusive names, accused her falsely, that he failed to support her and their two children. She displayed a picture of another woman, which she said was the cause of their separation.

TWO SPEAKERS ON PROGRAM

Watson And Van Nuys To Speak To Rush County Society

Senator James E. Watson of this city, who is visiting in the state now and Frederick Van Nuys of Indianapolis, formerly United States district attorney, who was born in this county, near Falmouth, have accepted invitations to speak to the Rush county society of Anderson, at their annual reunion, to be held in that city August 19. More than 1,000 former residents of Rush county, who now reside in Madison county, are expected to be present.

H. M. Downs, city engineer of Anderson, formerly surveyor of Rush county, and James B. Hurst, a business man of that city, who is a native of this county, are on a committee arranging for the annual reunion.

President Turns Deaf Ear To Pleas Of Politicians Who Want To Read Him Out Of Party

QUEER SITUATION EXISTS

Ominous Shadow Of Independent Movement Only Thing That Deters Fight On Idaho Senator

With President Harding, Butte, Mont., June 29.—Looking over the business situation today "from the pinnacle of our present prosperity," President Harding sees much to be cheerful about and nothing to cause worry, he told Butte citizens here today in a speech on "business and government."

The speech was devoted entirely to review of the efforts of the government, capital and labor and the whole American people to get the country back on its feet in a business sense, following the war.

"I wish to pay tribute to the business men of America, to labor, both organized and unorganized, and to my associates in the administration," said Harding. "It was the fine cooperation of business men and labor, who assisted the agencies of the government, that made possible this rehabilitation of business."

WALKER PASSES GOAL FOR HOSPITAL FUND

First Township In County To Report On Riley Campaign Raises Sum Of $556.08

TABLET AS RECOGNITION

The first report on the Riley Memorial hospital campaign in Rush county was received from Walker township today and shows a total of $556.08 subscribed.

The township committee set its goal at $500 so that the township would be recognized with a tablet in the memorial room of the hospital, and the fact that the goal was passed was very encouraging not only to the township workers, but to those who are engineering the county campaign as well. The Walker township committee is composed of Mrs. Hodges, Mrs. Lower and Mrs. Gross.

Every township in Indiana that raises $500 or more for the hospital will be mentioned on a tablet to be placed in the hospital.

T. M. Green county chairman says that the campaign for funds is going on quietly throughout the county and that if the other townships measure up to the standard set by Walker, the county will do remarkably well. With one or two exceptions the canvass has been started in every township.

LABOR SHORTAGE IS NOT SERIOUS

Situation Is Not Acute In Any Section Of Rush County, According To Reports

EXAGGERATED SOME PLACES

Wheat Cutting Is Expected To Be In Full Swing By The First Of Next Week

No acute labor shortage exists on the farms of Rush county, according to Donald D. Ball, county agent, who says that only in isolated cases will farmers be troubled in harvesting their wheat crop by the lack of help.

A real labor shortage exists in many neighboring counties, notably Fayette and Henry, according to newspaper reports, the Henry county agent predicting that many Henry county women will be driving binders in order to release the men on the farm for shocking wheat.

The expected shortage of men on the farms of Indiana during the harvest was one of the subjects discussed at the conference of county agents held in Indianapolis Tuesday which was attended by the local agent.

The seriousness of the situation has been exaggerated in some quarters, it is believed.

Wheat cutting is expected to be in full swing all over Rush county by the first of next week, if rain does not interfere with the ripening of the wheat. The rains this week set back wheat cutting two or three days in many localities. In the southern part of the county a few binders were started Tuesday and ready for operation Wednesday, but the rain prevented starting the work.

According to reports obtained from various sources today the wheat has not been damaged at all by the rains of the last two days. There was no wind to speak of either Wednesday or Thursday and the rain was not hard enough to bear wheat down. Wheat straw is strong this year and unless the unpredicted and unexpected happens the only damage to result from the rains will be the 48 hour delay in harvesting.

Wheat which was blown down by storm two weeks ago was not benefited by the rains but these patches of wheat already were in bad shape and the rain did not have much effect on them.

Plans Employment Bureau

Columbus, Ind., June 29.—To meet the harvest labor situation in this county, which is said to be most serious in certain sections, County Agent S. R. Miles this morning announced the opening of an employment bureau in his office at the court house.

It was decided to open the placement bureau here following a conference yesterday in Indianapolis of the county agents of the district of which Bartholomew county is a part.

Farmers needing hands for the harvest season are urged to communicate with Mr. Miles. A listing will then be made of the farmer's needs, how many men he will need, how long he will need them and what he will be willing to pay for their services.

Men seeking employment are urged.

COUPLE MARRIED INSTEAD

Case Of Georgia A. Innis Against Divorced Husband Settled

On the eve of the hearing in Justice Stech's court of the surety of the peace case filed recently by Georgia A. Innis against Wade H. Innis, her divorced husband, the couple arranged their differences satisfactorily, and Justice Stech Thursday afternoon, docketed another case. This time it was a marriage ceremony.

The couple was divorced in 1922, and are well known people of Milroy. Last week, Mrs. Innis, filed the surety of peace proceedings, charging that he threatened to kill her, and Justice Stech set the case for trial today, but when they appeared yesterday afternoon with a marriage license, and he performed the ceremony, the court took it for granted that the case was "off" for today.

St. Paul's M. E. Choir to Give Concert at Greensburg

The members of the St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church choir of this city will give a musical concert at the M. E. church in Greensburg Sunday evening. The program to be given by the local choir will be a return engagement, the choir of the Greensburg church having given a concert at the local church a few weeks ago.

A reception has been planned for the local members of the choir, to be given at the Y. M. C. A. building immediately following the program.

The program to be rendered by the choir, under the leadership of O. P. Wamsley and assisted by the Sunday school orchestra under the direction of A. P. Wagoner, will be as follows:

Cops Don't Want Sympathy

Indianapolis, Ind., June 29.—Indianapolis traffic cops aren't out for sympathy.

They voted 50 to 1 against adopting a uniform of white shirts and white ties during the hot weather. Mayor Shank proposed the new uniform when he returned from a visit to Ohio and found the traffic men sweltering in their heavy blue woolen coats.

"They're good enough for us," was the sentiment of all the cops when a pool was taken to find out how many wanted to discard the old uniforms.

So Chief Rikhoof has decided to let them continue wearing the blue uniforms.

IS KIDNAPPED BY BANDITS

Miss Genevieve Sprague Found Few Hours Later Near Hammond

Hammond, Ind., June 29.—Miss Genevieve Sprague, 21 South Hammond, was found in a state of physical collapse near here today a few hours after she had been kidnapped from her escort by two men.

Miss Sprague was taken from a car which she was riding with H. A. Trussell, Bolton, Ill. The men overpowered Trussell, he said, and throwing him from his machine, they drove away in it with the girl.

She was later found in the auto which had been deserted on a Lake Shore road. Police said she and Trussell identified two men taken in custody shortly afterwards as the kidnapers who are alleged to have attacked her.

The men gave the names of Frank Kelley, New York, and James Carr Mangle, Ind., according to the police report of the affair.

this question had been in progress for about one year.

Curzon, in response to an interrogation stated that "there is no chance of our agreeing, under any circumstances whatever, to the American proposal for a 12 mile limit to replace the 3 mile limit."

America asked for this extension of the zone of territorial waters in order to give more latitude for the chasing of run ships off its coast.

He also said that a committee, presided over by Ronald McNeill, is at present considering the question raised by seizure of liquor aboard British liners at New York.

He indicated belief that the American action in boarding foreign ships and confiscating liquor was not a violation of international law, but that it constituted an infraction of the code of international practice or custom.

ed to apply to Mr. Miles. The local men who apply will be given employment first and afterward help will be brought here from Indianapolis, according to a plan arranged under the direction of Governor McCray and taken up at the meeting attended by Mr. Miles. Many men have applied to the agricultural agent of Marion county for work and he has promised to co-operate with the agricultural agents in the various counties of the district in securing help for the harvest season.

The labor situation is not unusually serious in all section of the county but in certain parts it is impossible to get help at any price. OTSKltmijet-

Labor Survey Planned

Connersville, Ind., June 29—A survey to determine the extent of the farm labor shortage in Fayette county was started today by Marion F. Detrick, county agent. Mr. Detrick plans to obtain direct information from farmers in various parts of the county regarding the situation within the next day or two.

In case a serious shortage of help to take care of the harvest work is disclosed by the survey it is probable that an appeal for harvest hands will be made to the citizens of the city. Mr. Detrick does not plan to take that step, however, unless the conditions point to the necessity for such action. Only a few requests for farm labor have been made by farmers so far this year.

Indications are that the labor shortage in Fayette county is not serious. Farmers were needing help in the spring before the school term closed. Since that time high school and grade schools have at least partially relieved the situation.

Women Drive Binders

Newcastle, Ind., June 29—With the cutting of wheat expected to be general throughout the county by next week, Henry county farmers, like the farmers of most counties in the state, are facing a serious labor shortage and it will likely be solved by women driving binders, Sunday work and the farmers swapping work and forming rings.

Ralph Test, county agricultural agent, stated today that many farmers are short of help and if they could hire men, would be unable to pay the wages demanded by many. Mr. Test said the farmers are now behind with their work, pointing out that the corn would undoubtedly be badly in need of plowing after the rains of yesterday and today and that this would have to be neglected in many instances because of the rapidly ripening grain.

It was pointed out that the farmers would likely make out without trying to employ city help as this kind of labor was generally recognized as unsatisfactory. Men from factories are generally unsuited for farm labor at this time of the year, it was said and the plan to get men of the city to aid in the wheat field is not considered practical by the farmers here.

Farmers, if they can get additional help, expected to have to pay $3.50 to $4 a day and in some cases $5 a day has been demanded. The farmers point out that they cannot afford to pay this much money for labor as the wheat crop is not likely to be a paying investment this year. New wheat is expected to open at between 80 and 90 cents a bushel and the crop outlook is not the best. It was predicted that the crop for the entire county would average about 15 bushels to the acre. Not counting the land investment, it is said the cost of producing an acre of wheat is between $12 and $13 and the return from an acre at 90 cents a bushel averaging 15 bushels, would be $13.50. At the best it is hard for the farmers to figure out a profit, especially if compelled to pay high wages for inexperienced help.

HARDING REFUSES TO REBUKE BORAH

Idaho politicians that he rebuke Borah while speaking in Idaho.

Borah today is fighting the whole Republican organization of his state for his political life. One group of party leaders is so embittered against him that its members want to throw him out of the nominating committee, refuse to seat Borah delegates and repudiate to him in the most ruthless manner.

Another group quite as hostile but afraid of a third party movement, will try to beat Borah for the senatorial nomination without giving him a chance to comeback.

Borah's friends would not be sorry to see him excluded from the convention. The plain facts are they—and Borah shares their feeling to a degree—would just as soon he ran as an independent.

If his re-election were left to the people of Idaho, Borah would probably make little or no campaign but would go back to Washington and let the voters take care of him.

The only thing that deters the party leaders from reading Borah out of the party right now is the ominous shadow of an independent movement that might, they fear, cost the party the state in the 1924 campaign. It would take very little to crystallize third party sentiment, not only in Idaho, but throughout the west, political observers in this section say.

Thus more than Idaho is involved. The whole western country that holds the balance of power now more securely than ever might be swung if Idaho politicians went through their plan to cast Borah out.

National party headquarters in Washington have been keeping a close watch on the situation and it is likely that the strategy employed in the nominating convention will be directed from Washington.

President Harding wouldn't even let the Idaho politicians talk to him about it when they tried to enlighten his aid. Mr. Harding has already made it plain that he wants no schemes in the party. Besides that he is now counting on Borah's help eventually in getting the world court proposal through the senate. Mr. Harding understands how potent that assistance can be.

Protests against dismissals of Arthur Powell Davis, head of the reclamation service, after more than forty years in the government's employ were brought to President Harding's attention today. The president declined, however, to discuss the matter, saying he knew nothing about it and that Secretary of the Interior Work was the man to talk to.

Work, asked why Davis was discharged, said:

"He handed in his resignation." He angrily denied charges that politics caused the dismissal, but refused to tell why Davis was removed.

"Then he was not dismissed?" Work was asked.

"He handed in his resignation," the secretary reiterated, and hurried away.

Reclamation Commissioner Swenson of Idaho, who has just returned from Washington said the supplanting of A. P. Davis by D. W. Davis, former Idaho governor, was a move to bring about a business administration in the reclamation service, to cut red tape and save money. Swenson said that D. W. Davis, although not an engineer, is a businessman who can put efficiency into the service.

Mr. Harding today had two Montana speeches on his program, the ASK WHAT YE WILL:—If ye abide in me, and My words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.—John 15: 7.

Two Viewpoints

An Indiana newspaper, discussing President Harding's speech regarding legislation for the relief of farmers at Hutchinson, Kansas, gives the past administration credit for the legislation, and refers to the Fordney-McCumber tariff law which President Harding said in his speech had "been a great help to farmers." "The prices of farm products, notably wheat," says the paper, "have been falling ever since." After quoting a paragraph of Harding's speech, the paper continues: "The farmers have their home market, and yet the American people are being pleaded to 'eat one more slice of bread,' and agricultural prices are tumbling. Meanwhile the farmer is heavily taxed on his sugar, his clothing, his implements and utensils in order to provide a market that can not or will not absorb his product at prices profitable to him."

In the next column on the same editorial page we read a dissertation on "Indiana in June," which describes the feelings of a Hoosier returned to his native state. "Indiana now shows her opulence," we read. Through the central plain, where the wide expanses of level lands are cropped and the crops are approaching their harvest, the wealth of the fertile soil is spread out as on an exposition ground—the gray-green of timothy and oats, the green and red of clover meadows, the pale harvest gold of the wheat, here still bowing to the breezes, there dotting the fields in yellow shocks; the dark green corn, gathering vigor and size from summer heat.

"Nor are the gifts of the fertile fields the only assets of Indiana. Beauties and charms of many kinds she has to offer, and pre-eminently in June. About the trim, neat country homes that go with agricultural prosperity the prodigal rambler, roses, red and pink and white, riot over the porches or clamber along the fences or stand up in great clusters of gorgeous colors, and the rustic villages that lie along one's route are gay with them, and with hollyhocks, honeysuckles and clematis."

"The wealth of the fertile soil is spread out" and "the trim, neat country homes that go with agricultural prosperity" are phrases that are not calculated to lead readers to believe that farmers are in the slough of despondency. Farmers, though they have had troubled times when they see the ripening grain, have much to be thankful for. It might be worse. Through this section they are particularly blessed. If the land will retain its fertility and farmers do not lose their ambition to grow better crops, they will be blessed with better times, because a solution of their problems will be found.

Things might be worse. Not long ago, when hog prices hit the toboggan, the pessimists were walking about with a forlorn look lamenting the fact that hogs were going down to five cents. Nothing would send them there any sooner than such talk. But they didn't. And the calamity howler is really disappointed even though he may have several ready for the market. It's a queer world.

Why Dodge The Issue?

The new income tax figures tell a plain story with a plain lesson. In one year, the number of Americans paying taxes on incomes above $100,000 decreased from 3,600 to 2,300. That is a loss of 1,300.

The governments of the United States are practically inviting people to evade their taxes by seeking relief through investment in tax-free securities.

The governments, local and national, lay before the man of large income a great mass of their securities, every few days, and say to him,

If you will hand over some of your money in exchange for these securities, we will see that you pay no taxes on the income that you draw from the loan.

Many taxpayers accept this invitation and thus evade, or dodge, taxes, thereby unloading a fierce tax burden on the rest of us.

So long as the government impose enormous taxes, and at the same time offer a ready way out, the present abuse will go on.

Politicians who rage against rich tax dodgers, and then vote for tax-free securities, are merely beating the air, and they know it.

KEARNS REFUSES TO COMPROMISE

Will Not Consent to Dempsey Taking a Chance on Getting Guarantee From Gate Receipts

HOLDS TO HIS CONTRACT

Promoters of July 4 Bount Hoped to Evade Financial Difficulties in Which They are Involved

Great Falls, Mont., June 29—Jack Kearns, manager of the champion, today sent west one more hope of the would-be promoters of a Dempsey-Gibbons heavyweight championship bout.

In a conference that lasted into the small hours of the morning, Kearns, slim, dapper, sartorially, a striking contrast to the roughly clad westerners who towered above him, turned down a proposal whereby the backers of the bout had hoped to evade financial difficulties in which they find themselves.

Loy Molunby, on behalf of the prospective promoters, suggested that Dempsey, who is entitled to payment of $100,000 on July 2, waive his contract rights and go on with the fight, with the privilege of taking all the gate receipts up to the amount due him.

"Nothing doing," was Kearns' answer in effect.

After having flatly turned down this proposition, Kearns said:

"If it's sportsmanship they want I'll let Dempsey fight Tommy Gibbons in private in a locked room, and Jack will knock him apart. That's how sporting we are. But their affair at Shelby is a business proposition. Sportsmanship does not enter into it."

Although Kearns professed to be undismayed by a threat of Attorney General Rankin to proceed against him under the laws against fraud in case the fight should not come off, friends advised him to speak softly about Rankin.

Rankin at Helena indicated Dempsey and Kearns would be prosecuted on charge of obtaining money under fraudulent pretenses if they attempted to leave Montana with the $200,000 already paid them as part of the champion's guarantee.

By JAMES T. KOLBERT (U. P. Staff Correspondent)
Atlantic City, N. J., June 29—Harlan McCoy, 14, of Columbus Ohio is the champion marble shooter of the United States.

He won the title here today, defeating Sammy Schneider, 11, of St. Louis in the final match of the marble championship tournament.

Schneider won the first game 8 to 5.

McCoy came back and took the second, 11 to 2.

Schneider rallied, however, and captured the third, 8 to 5.

McCoy took the fourth, 9 to 4; the fifth, 11 to 2 and followed this up by winning the sixth.

McCoy and Schneider were the survivors of forty competitors selected in elimination contests conducted by the Scripps-Howard and other newspapers in all parts of the country.

The tournament started last Tuesday on the sand here. Large crowds watched the play.

ARLINGTON HURLERS WIN

The Arlington horseshoe hurlers had the best of the argument over here last night, when they continued with their winning streak, and set back a team from Rushville, that was expected to show them up. Arlington won ten games, and Rushville six, and the argument was then settled that the Posey township heavers had a better eye for the stake.

The Arlington team has established a record in this section, and so far no team has been able to compare with them.

The game was played on the "links" near Walter Wainwright's grocery store, corner of Hannah and Third streets, in the presence of a big crowd.

Minus Sisler, Just a Ball Club

By PAUL R. MALLON (U. P. Staff Correspondent)

New York, June 29—One ball player may not make a team, but one can break a team.

George Sisler proved that this season by letting the St. Louis Browns money along in the pennant race without his services. Minus the star first baseman, the Browns look like an ordinary baseball club, with nine players on the field stopping batted balls. With Sisler in the line-up last year they lost the pennant race by a nose.

It isn't so much Sisler's physical powers that the Browns need. If he was batting around .419 and stealing 50 bases for them this year, it would help, of course. But it's the mental hazard of his absence that is doing more to keep them down.

With Sisler, they are confident; without him, they know they haven't got a chance.

In their failure lies one of the most tragic incidents of hard-luck baseball.

In the absence of Sisler it has been the veteran Walter Gerber that gives the old infield its warped conception of pep. They used to say it was Gerber who was the right side of the diamond and Sisler the left.

But it's sort of hard to be both sides at once.

Big Jess Willard is adding to his reputation around New York every day. When the western giant first blew into Manhattan, for his battle with Floyd Johnson everyone gave him the razz. Old Jess, they called him, just back from the old men's home. They saw him promoted by greed to come back against some of the hams of the ring and pick up some of the easy money that the promoters were tossing out.

"Nickel ninner!" they yelled. Jess went plugging right along and, to the surprise of everyone, succeeded in getting himself into the best shape of his career. When he meets Luis Angel Firpo, champion of the "nickel ninner," there are going to be a lot more fans rooting for him than there were at the Yankee Stadium when he socked Johnson.

They had a chance to call him hero a little while back when he dragged his huge frame through a flood in the west and pulled out a number of women, children and even horses. Jesse was wading in a spot where ordinary human beings were trying to swim.

The boys are beginning to take back what they said about him.

HERO OF REGATTA

DON WALLING

By FRANK GETTY (U. P. Staff Correspondent)
Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 29—And they said he couldn't row!

A stroke oar with a bad knee, but a heart of oak, and seven inspired young western huskies who toiled to victory behind him, today possess the cup symbolic of the inter-collegiate rowing championship of 1923, while the east, its crews soundly beaten, pays tribute to Don Walling and the Washington crew.

Something of the open spaces for which the west is famous showed between the Washington shell and the tiring champion Navy crew which toiled in second place in the varsity race of the annual inter-collegiate regatta yesterday while shells of Columbia, Syracuse, Cornell and Pennsylvania splashed in the rear in order.

From the white rows of yachts that stood out in the falling shades of night, and the huddled, drenched throngs on the banks, the roar of tribute that went up as the purple and gold-tipped shell slid across the finish line was largely in honor of Washington's gallant stroke oar.

Suffering intense pain from an infected knee, which made it seem certain he could not row yesterday, Walling paced his men to a splendid victory over the powerful, arrogant Navy.

Walling had been counted out of the race Tuesday; his knee, swollen, discolored, frightfully painful, seemed certain to prevent him from rowing. He had contracted blood poisoning, either from boils or from the bite of an insect. Wednesday it was learned he would row, but even Coach Callow of the Washington crew had little to say about the westerner's chances of victory after this blow.

In the race, Walling stroked his eight in masterly fashion that never gave a hint at any time of what he must be suffering. At the finish it was the Navy which splashed, not the speeding Washington crew. After the flaxen-haired Cox had shouted "let 'er run," Walling slumped over his oar, but only for a minute. Splashed with water, he straightened up with a grin and set a smart pace for his victorious crew back to the boat house. There he walked unassisted into the Washington quarters.

Rallying in the sixth, after Philadelphia had taken the lead with two homers, the New York Yanks seceded two runs, regained the lead and clinched the game in the ninth with a lone tally, 4 to 2.

"A Little off of Main, But It Pays to Walk"

Miss Martha Jean Matlock is entertaining with a house party this week at her home south of the city, honoring her guest, Miss Georganna Tuller, of Detroit, Mich.

Miss Helen Scaddler was hostess to the members of the Thursday Afternoon Bridge club Thursday afternoon at her home in West Second street. Among the guests present was Mrs. George Dehority of Elwood, Ind. A delicious luncheon was served to the guests at the close of the card game.

The Methodist choir will meet tonight at seven o'clock at the church for the last rehearsal before the choir goes to Greensburg for a concert Sunday night. A full attendance of members is desired.

I Owe My Beauty

Largely to This White Super-Clay
By Edna Wallace Hopper

My youthful beauty is the marvel of millions. My complexion is as soft and rosy as 40 years ago. Not a line or wrinkle marks it. I could easily pass for 19. On the stage I still play young girls' parts.

Scores of my friends have secured like results by the methods I employ. They have multiplied their beauty and kept their youthful bloom. So I am convinced that women in general can do what I have done. And I am going to help them if they wish.

I have arranged to supply to dealers everywhere the very helps I use. They have proved themselves the best helps in existence. Now I want them to bring to millions what they brought to me.

My 20-Year Clay

The chief reason for my youthful beauty is the use of facial clay. Not the crude and muddy clays so many use today, but a white, refined clay, wonderfully perfected. It is the final result of 20 years of scientific study.

Famous beauties have used them for ages. That's what made them famous. But only in late years has tests and analyses have proved what clay been really studied. Countless clay is best—a certain rare clay, mineral-laden.

Ways have been found to refine it, to remove the useless mud. The clay I use is white and clean and dainty. And science has found some added factors which bring multiplied results.

Any clay user will be amazed at the difference when she compares my Youth Clay with the old kind.

You Must Use Clay

Clay is essential to beauty at its best. Also to continued youth. No woman who omits it can hope to compare with women who employ it. Every woman must use clay in justice to herself.

Clay purges the skin of all that clogs the pores—the causes of sallowness, blackheads and blemishes. It reduces enlarged pores, firms the skin, combats lines and wrinkles. It brings beauty of texture and contour.

It draws the blood to the skin to nourish and revive it. The result is that rosy afterglow which every user knows.

The results are almost unbelievable at first. In a few minutes one seems to drop ten years. New bloom and beauty comes. And continued use brings what it brought me—decades of added youth.

Don't neglect your clay. A glance will tell in any crowd the users and non-users. But ordinary clays will never show you what a clay can do. To every woman my White Youth Clay will be a revelation.

Edna Wallace Hopper's White Youth Clay is now supplied by all druggists and toilet goods dealers. Price, 50c and $1 per tube. Also my Youth Cream, based on lemon and strawberry. This should follow the clay. Also my Facial Youth—my famous liquid cleanser. Also my Hair Youth, which brought my luxuriant hair. My Beauty Book comes with each.

Go try my Youth Clay in fairness to yourself. If the first tube fails to amaze and delight you, your dealer will return the price.

DEFINITE PLANS MADE FOR CAMP

visit the owner today and obtain his permission if possible.

It will be necessary to buy or rent tents to be used at the camp, it was disclosed at the meeting of committees last night, as Company C, Indiana National Guard, of this city, will be using their tents during the time that the camp will be held, and they will not be available for the boys. Company C tents were loaned by Captain Will B. Brann of Company C last year and proved very valuable in the work.

There is a small balance in the fund raised last year to support the first camp ever held in Rush county, and this will be observed this year in paying the expenses of the camp. The fee of four dollars, which each boy will pay for each seven days he attends the camp, will meet the actual expenses of the camp, it is believed, but additional funds will be needed to purchase and rent equipment. In case the balance left over from last year is not sufficient, more money will be raised by popular subscription. A finance committee was appointed last night to take care of this part of the work.

Last year's camp was in charge of A. F. Cotton, and in view of the responsibility entailed, it was a big task for one man. Since D. R. Merrill, Scout leader, has consented to join with Mr. Cotton in managing the camp, it is felt that the work can be handled much easier.

Cots, a kitchen stove, a considerable quantity of lumber and other equipment used last year are stored at the Graham high school building and will be available for use this year. Lumber is needed to build a mess hall where the boys put their feet under the table three times a day.

The question of a site will be settled within the next few days, it is believed. The committee is endeavoring to find a better site than that selected last year, especially with better swimming facilities.

Boys who expect to attend are urged to register with Harry Wyatt at the George C. Wyatt and company store at once.

TRUCK AND AUTO COLLIDE

An automobile towing car driven by W. Dye and a gasoline truck driven by Glass Darnell, met in a collision this afternoon at the corner of Third and Perkins streets. The towing car sustained a badly bent front right fender and the light was also forced into the radiator which caused it to leak. The truck was not damaged, and the two drivers were uninjured. The accident was said to be unavoidable.

Dorothy Dalton At Princess

Dorothy Dalton in "The Law of the Lawless," with Theodore Kosloff, Charles de Roche and Tully Marshall in feature roles, has a role that suits her perfectly and one she likes immensely. She is seen as a Tartar girl, and this enables her to wear the picturesque costumes of the Roumanian hills, which enhance her charm and give the colorful effect which always registers so admirably on the screen. Besides, the part is one which gives Miss Dalton an opportunity for the display of the vivid acting, fiery almost primitive in character, for which she is famed.

Theodore Kosloff is also cast in a Tartar role and to this his strong personality, artistic preceptions and dramatic force lend themselves perfectly.

Charles de Roche is excellently cast as a gypsy chieftain. His splendid physique, his strong features, his immense acting, all come into play in this part. Tully Marshall is seen as a village money lender. Fred Bentley and Margaret Loomis also are in the cast, and the latter, always a favorite, brings to her characteristic beauty, charm and grace, as well as her ability to act.

The story of "The Law of the Lawless," which will be seen at the Princess today, deals with a Tartar girl who is sold at auction in payment of her father's debts and bought by a gypsy chieftain. He compels her to marry him and his manly qualities soon prompt her to love him. When her husband is cap-

Pete Morrison At Mystic

"Daring Danger," the western photodrama starring Pete Morrison and which will be the feature attraction at the Mystic theatre, today, introduces a new kind of western thriller with many new western thrills devised by Pete Morrison, Rodeo Champ and "Brownie" his celebrated pony co-star.

A handsome cowpuncher mounted on a handsome steed offers a combination that is hard to beat for the edification of the movie fans in their screen entertainment. In "Daring Danger," Pete Morrison as Cal Horton and "Brownie" give a wonderful exhibition of horsemanship and many new thrills are introduced.

Through force of circumstances, tured by her countrymen, she goes to his rescue with highly dramatic results.

disqualified by the father of the girl that he hopes to marry he arises manfully from the cloak of suspicion that envelops him. The manner of his getaway from a gang of outlaws and cattle thieves whom the U. S. Government has delegated him to capture, is an old trick amongst the old school cowpuncher who enjoyed life in the glorious west of the olden days, but a new one for the many movie fans who will see "Daring Danger." His riding will excite a thrill even to the old timers. Rapid action is carried out in his great ride for assistance, the great fight and final scenes when the tangle is unwoven and his name is cleared and Horton successfully gains the blessing and consent of the father to marry the girl that he loves.

Pete Morrison achieves new laurel in this western thriller and his many followers will not be disappointed in the way of thrills when they see him in his latest cinema success "Daring Danger."

SCOUT NOTES

Word has been received from national headquarters at New York City that Rushville's quota of Scout pins, badges and registration certificates had been sent out. As soon as they arrive word will be sent to all Scouts through this column.

All boys planning on going on the overnight camp tomorrow night should meet at the city park at 4:00 o'clock. Equipment should include the necessary bedding, and food for two meals. Any one planning on swimming must take his bathing suit. Pup tents and mess kits will be very nice to take, if possible. Do not take candy and cake.

A number of boys have expressed a desire to buy Boy Scout uniforms. These boys should plan to buy some time during July as Scout headquarters supply department anticipate an advance in price after that time. This advance will not be made if possible, however. It is also to be remembered that no boy can purchase Scout uniforms or badges until after he has passed the tenderfoot tests.

Letters explaining more in detail the Turkey Run state camp will be sent out to all boys who have signed up to go, on July 1. These letters will furnish a list of necessary equipment, the camp rules and the camp program. They should be preserved for use at the camp, as ignorance of camp rules and camp program will excuse no boy.

How to build up your Weight

TO be under weight often proves low fighting-power in the body. It often means you are minus nerve power, minus red-cells in your blood, minus health, minus vitality. It is serious to be minus, but the moment you increase the number of your red-blood-cells, you begin to become plus. That's why S.S.S., since 1826, has meant to thousands of underweight men and women, a plus in their strength. Your body fills to the point of power, your flesh becomes firmer, the age lines that come from thinness disappear. You look younger, firmer, happier, and you feel it, too, all over your body. More red-blood-cells! S.S.S. will build them.

S.S.S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.

Sound Testimonial Evidence

showing the power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound over the ills of women is constantly being published in this paper. The strongest recommendation any article can have is that borne by the persons who use it. One ill with ailments that caused suffering and despair, but now restored to the joys of health, from a grateful heart multitudes of women write letters of appreciation to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. of Lynn, Mass. Such evidence of the power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound over the ills of women should induce every suffering woman to try it. —Advertisement

And Then Came Perfect Circles!

Oil-pumping motors used to be the bane of the garageman's life. Many a "bad-oiler" simply could not be corrected by any means known to the best mechanics. Then came Perfect Circles — a new principle—so simple and logical any layman understands it the minute he sees the ring. They ended the garageman's troubles with oil-pumping motors, and today are giving thousands of car owners 1000 to 1500 miles to the gallon of oil. Ask your garageman.
